

New Ridley is a registered location offering 24-hour support. We specialise in supporting adults with learning disabilities, physical disabilities and complex health needs including PEG feeding. New Ridley is situated in the village of Stocksfield, about 14 miles from Newcastle upon Tyne in Northumberland.

Introducing New Ridley

New Ridley is a 24-hour residential care home for up to nine adults, designed to support people with learning disabilities and physical disabilities. We support people living in New Ridley to lead active lives in which their individuality, independence, dignity and respect are maintained. We fully embrace person centred planning, ensuring the person we support is at the centre in the delivery of high-quality care and support. We strongly believe that every person we support should receive the right level of care in an environment that meets their needs wants and wishes.

The people we support at New Ridley are encouraged to participate in a wide range of activities of their interest, including bowling, cinema, swimming and visits to places of interest.

Our Services

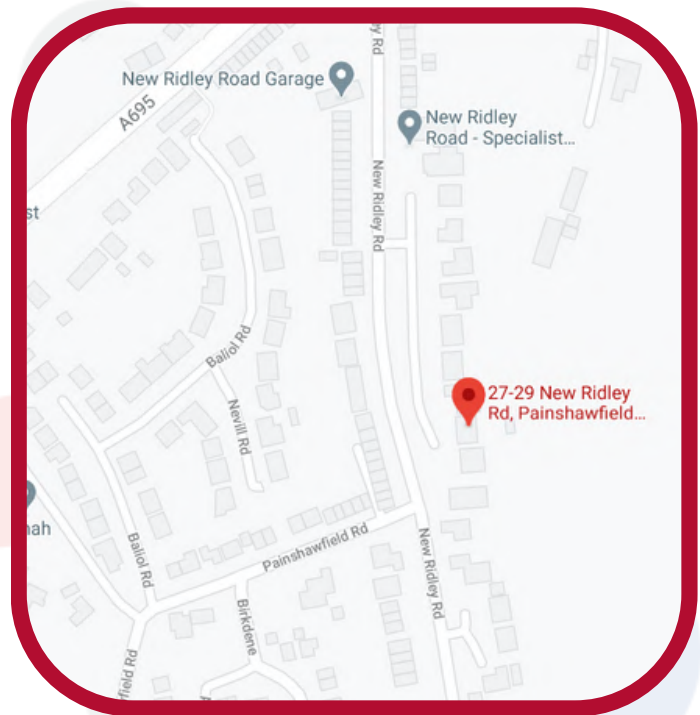

- Are outcome-focussed and highly person-centred.
- Provide 24/7 residential care.
- Provide activities tailored to the interest of the individuals we support both in and out of the home.
- Are holistic, with person-centred care and support developed in collaboration with the people we support, their families and a multi-disciplinary team of health care professionals.

The Team

The team is led by an experienced Manager with many years of supporting people with learning disabilities and physical disabilities. The staff team are committed to good quality care and meeting the needs of all people they support.

"When I was looking for a new home for [my sister], I knew immediately when I walked through the door of New Ridley that is was exactly the right place for her. Everyone was so positive and welcoming. I am so grateful for all the exceptional care and support given to her by all the lovely staff. They are all so skilled. I always had every confidence in every aspect of her care, and she was very happy there."
