"My sister has been at Newlands for about 18 months and is very happy there. I feel that her views are listened to and she is valued as an individual - for example, her room was redecorated for her, blue and white as befits an Ipswich FC fan! My sister has unstable diabetes but most of the staff have had diabetes training and can administer her medication so I feel reassured that she is safe. Newlands has a nice homely feel and I am always made to feel welcome when I visit."
